

Ideas for May Events

Cinco DeMayo!

Cinco de Mayo (Spanish for "fifth of May") is a celebration held on May 5. It is celebrated in the United States. Continue reading Activity ideas: click here

Teacher Appreciation Day!

National Teachers appreciation day is May 6, 2014. This is a great day to show your staff that you appreciate them and invite parents to show their appreciation. Here are a few simple ideas to show your appreciation: Buy your staff lunch, hang thank you balloons on a beautiful plant that you purchase for each teacher, be sure to include a thank you card. The teachers will feel so special. For more ideas, click here.

Muffins with moms

The Friday before mother's day, invite parents to come have muffins and juice with their children at your Child Care Facility. Be sure to decorate the tables with pink table cloths and hang festive mother's day decorations.

Year end Party or Preschool Graduation

I created an ecourse lesson on how to plan a preschool graduation and here is a link from my Family Home Child Care Empowerment club, click here
